

Mammals 29-40

Mrs. Weimer

Across

- 2 fishers are close in size to a domesticated ____
- 3 term of a male black bear
- 4 average amount of cubs in a black bear litter
- 7 primary control of the deer population
- 8 fishers are a natural predator of this spiny animal
- 11 implantation type common to mustelids and bears
- 13 forest type preferred by the chipmunk
- 15 male elk
- 17 can be aged by length of hair or rings on their teeth
- 19 are shed and regrow annually
- 20 bat that has two pair of breasts
- 21 term for buds and twigs that deer eat
- 24 black bears give birth every ____ years
- 25 term referring to animals who are active in the early morning and evening (like deer)
- 30 bears are most active during the night, so they are ____
- 33 the color of a coyote's eyes
- 34 bats survive winter by living off of body fat, so if you disturb them during this time they may ____
- 35 whitetails use their tail as a ____ to alert others in the herd
- 36 parasite that kills elk
- 37 bats feed mainly on ____
- 38 a close cousin to the fisher
- 41 bat that has been most affected by whitenose disease in PA
- 42 a group of female elk
- 43 whitetails can run ____ miles per hour

Down

- 1 are permanent and are made of modified hair
- 2 pouches that allow chipmunks to carry food
- 4 term that means becoming inactive in winter, but not true hibernation (starts with t)
- 5 a fisher is a tree climbing ____, like the river otter, mink, skunk, and pine marten
- 6 fawns utilize this to blend into their surrounding and look like sunlight on the forest floor
- 9 meaning traveling a long distance (coyotes)
- 10 month black bear cubs are born
- 12 the dominant food source for a coyote
- 14 male elk call female elk
- 16 preorbital, tarsals, metatarsals, and interdigital are all ____
- 18 bats co-habitate, which is referred to as being ____
- 22 term for deer and elk mating season
- 23 how a black bear walks (flat footed)
- 26 long tailed and ermine are weasels that change ____
- 27 bats can live for an average of ____ years, which makes up for them not having many young
- 28 pipistrelle bats are also referred to as ____ bats
- 29 a hybridization of coyote and wolf
- 31 female elk
- 32 digestive system of elk and deer
- 39 "white deer" or indian name for elk
- 40 coyotes will often hunt in a ____